Note: The information requested below asks for information about wage payments made in the course of business during calendar year 2018. If your tax year ends in a month other than December, you must refer to two fiscal years in order to provide answers that reflect the payments made in every month of calendar 2018. Do not report information on any wages paid by you during 2017 or 2019.

- 1) If you paid wages during 2018, list the names, addresses and Social Security Numbers of all the people to whom wages were paid, and the amounts of wages and withholdings.
  - a) Indicate if the employees are participants in your pension or profit sharing plan.
  - b) If the employees contributed to the company 401(k) plan or deferred compensation plan, indicate the amount contributed by each employee.
  - c) If the employee had contributions to a company Section 125 (Cafeteria) plan withheld, indicate the amount withheld. Do not report amounts reimbursed to the employee.

If you file 250 or more W-2 forms for 2018, you MAY be required to report health insurance paid on behalf of your employees on W-2 forms filed for 2019.

PENALTIES MAY BE ASSESSED FOR INCOMPLETE OR INCORRECT INFORMATION
